There is also a Powerpoint attached to refer to.
Using the Day of the Dead theme, experiment and develop your own ideas. This is your opportunity to exercise your own creativity and include interests that are personal to you! Remember to explain your ideas - use the annotation guide to help you!
As this assignment is for the remainder of the term, you are expected to produce 2 pages per week of development work.
IMPORTANT: You must upload your progress by Friday of each week so that it can be comment marked.
